

DAVID JONES
ROSE CLINIC

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH BREASTSCREEN WA

Free Breast Screening at David Jones Rose Clinic

Women aged 50 and over are at an increased risk of developing breast cancer, which is why having regular, two-yearly screening mammograms is so important.

A screening mammogram may detect a very small cancer well before you or your doctor can feel it. The earlier breast cancer is detected, the better the chance of successful treatment.

To book an appointment call 13 20 50
Monday to Friday 8am-5pm
or visit davidjones.com/rose-clinic

Government of Western Australia
North Metropolitan Health Service

BreastScreen

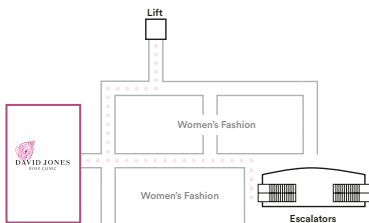

WA's only accredited screening service

DAVID JONES
ROSE CLINIC

The David Jones Rose Clinic offers

Free Breast Screening on Level 3

ROSE CLINICS ARE HOUSED IN ALL FLAGSHIP
DAVID JONES STORES AND FEATURE:

- Complimentary breast screening services for women over 40.
 - BreastScreen Australia recommends that women aged 50-74 have a free two-yearly mammogram.
 - A welcoming and comfortable environment.
 - A doctor's referral is not required.
 - The latest digital mammography technology.
-